

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

National Library Week

April 11 - 17, 2010

WHEREAS, Libraries everywhere play a vital role in supporting the quality of life in their communities; and

WHEREAS, Our nation's school, academic, public and special libraries make a difference in the lives of millions of Americans, today, more than ever; and

WHEREAS, Librarians are trained professionals, helping people of all ages and backgrounds find and interpret the information they need to live, learn and work in a challenging economy; and

WHEREAS, Libraries serve as crucial technology hubs for people in need of free Web access, computer training, and assistance finding job resources; and

WHEREAS, Libraries are part of the American Dream – places for opportunity, education, self-help and lifelong learning; and

WHEREAS, Library use is up nationwide among all types of library users, continuing a decade-long trend; and

WHEREAS, Libraries, librarians, library workers and supporters across America are celebrating National Library Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James C. Hornaday, Mayor of the City of Homer, hereby proclaim:

National Library Week

April 11-17, 2010

I encourage all residents to visit the library this week to take advantage of the wonderful library resources available at your library. Communities thrive at your library.
